Q21 As you may know, social media companies collect users' personal data and allow advertisers to target users based upon that data. Which comes closer to your point of view. (ROTATE.)

Statement A: This is an acceptable tradeoff because it allows social media companies to provide free or low-cost services and create better products that fit our needs and interests.

Statement B: This is not an acceptable tradeoff because it gives social media companies too much influence over our lives and potentially using personal information in ways we would not want.

| Statement A | 23 |
| :---: | :---: |
| Statement B | 74 |
| Both (VOL) | 2 |
| Neither (VOL) | 1 |
